

SIR CHHOTU RAM GOVERNMENT COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, SAMPLA
(Affiliated to Maharshi Dayanand University Rohtak)

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES

“ऋते ज्ञानात् भ्रमः
मुक्तिः”

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES OF SIR CHHOTU RAM GOVERNMENT COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, SAMPLA

Sir Chhotu Ram Government College For Women, Sampla has five Programmes like B.A.,B.Sc., B.Com, M.A. History, M.A. Hindi whose outcomes may be listed as follows :

B.A.(Pass Course):

1. Learning effective communication skill and Social behavior.
2. Positive thinking and Mental health.
3. Attain the knowledge based on languages such as English, Hindi and Sanskrit.
4. Obtain the knowledge on facts and circumstances of various subjects such as History, Geography, Political Science, Economics etc.
5. Increase the ability to understand basic concept, principles and theories of different subjects.
6. Moral values and human rights of social service.

B.Sc.(Non-Medical):

1. Understand the theories, basic concepts and Fundamental Principles of Force and Mass and its applications which students can apply in day to day life.
2. Develop the scientific phenomena and research aptitude.
3. Increase lucrative employment opportunities like research and industries.

B.Com.(Pass Course):

1. Students will get the knowledge, skills and attitudes from the different disciplines of taxation, marketing, banking and economics.
2. This programme helps the students for start up their own independent Business.
3. Students can prove skills and attitudes in different professional exams like C.A., C.S, CMA, MPSC, UPSC and also able to pursue higher education in the field of commerce, management.

M.A. Hindi:

1. This Programme provides advanced knowledge of Hindi Literature and Language. It develop a deep understanding of classical, medieval, and modern Hindi literature, including its historical, cultural, and social contexts.
2. Cultivate the ability to critically analyze literary works, linguistic patterns, and cultural texts, applying various theoretical frameworks.
3. Acquire advanced research skills in Hindi literature and language, enabling independent inquiry and the ability to contribute original knowledge to the field.
4. Encourage creative expression and scholarly contributions to the field of Hindi literature, enriching the literary and cultural landscape.
5. Equip students with the skills to engage with global literature and cultural studies while promoting Hindi on international platforms.

M.A. History:

1. Demonstrate an in-depth understanding of historical events, movements, and their broader social, political, economic, and cultural contexts.

2. Evaluate and critique historical arguments, narratives, and interpretations using primary and secondary sources.
3. Produce original research that contributes to the field of history, adhering to professional and ethical standards.
4. Understand and engage with historiographical debates and diverse methodological approaches to history.
5. Understand the interconnectedness of global histories and cultures.
6. Address complex historical problems by formulating research questions and constructing coherent, evidence-based arguments.
7. Analyze and interpret historical developments in a global context, understanding their impact on modern society. Foster an understanding of the role of historical processes in shaping global connections and challenges.