Sir Chhotu Ram Government College for Women, Sampla

Report on 7-Day NSS Special Camp

The 7-day NSS Special Camp organized by NSS Unit-II, Sir Chhotu Ram Government College for Women, Sampla was successfully conducted at Kheri Sampla Village under the theme "Youth for My Bharat and Digital Literacy" from 6th March to 12th March 2026. The camp aimed to encourage students to participate in community service, promote social awareness, and develop leadership qualities among volunteers. The camp provided a platform for students to interact with the rural community, understand social challenges, and contribute towards the development of society through various awareness and service activities.

Objectives of the Camp

The main objectives of the NSS Special Camp were:

- To encourage youth participation in community service and social development.
- To spread awareness about digital literacy and responsible use of technology.
- To promote environmental conservation and cleanliness.
- To develop leadership, teamwork, and communication skills among volunteers.
- To create awareness about social issues such as drug abuse, traffic safety, and moral values.

Day 1 – Inauguration and Community Awareness

The camp commenced with its inauguration by Dr. Sunil Chauhan, Head of the Department of English. The program began with the NSS Song, the National Song "Vande Mataram," and the lighting of the ceremonial lamp before Goddess Saraswati, symbolizing knowledge and positivity.

The day started with the registration and ice-breaking session of volunteers, which helped participants interact with each other and build a sense of unity. Dr. Sunil Chauhan emphasized the importance of NSS in promoting social service and community engagement. She encouraged volunteers to participate actively in every activity and highlighted the importance of mental peace, discipline, and healthy habits in daily life.

Dr. Ritu (NSS Programme Officer, Unit-II) briefed the volunteers about the activities planned during the camp and explained the theme "Youth for My Bharat and Digital Literacy." They emphasized the role of youth in nation building and digital empowerment.

Motivational videos of the 10-Day NSS Adventure Camp were screened to inspire the volunteers. Later, volunteers organized a rally on "Don't Throw Plastic Bags & Save Environment" in Kheri Sampla village to spread awareness about environmental protection. Volunteers also conducted a cleanliness drive at Bhashu Ashram, the camp venue, promoting the message of Swachhata and responsible waste management.

Day 2 – Meditation and Environmental Awareness

The day began with a meditation session conducted by the Heartfulness Organisation, which helped volunteers develop mental calmness, focus, and emotional balance.

This was followed by an awareness lecture on moral values, highlighting the importance of honesty, empathy, discipline, and responsible citizenship among youth.

Volunteers also organized a meaningful interaction session with elderly people of the village. During this meeting, the elders shared their life experiences, traditional values, and insights into the cultural and social changes over time. This interaction helped volunteers develop respect for community wisdom and better understand rural life and challenges.

Later, volunteers visited the village pond of Kheri Sampla, where elderly villagers shared insights about its historical importance in sustaining the village ecosystem. Volunteers learned about traditional water conservation techniques and indigenous knowledge systems. This activity helped them understand the significance of protecting natural resources and maintaining ecological balance.

Day 3 – Yoga, Herbal Knowledge, and Women Empowerment

The third day began with meditation and yoga sessions, promoting physical fitness and mental well-being among volunteers.

Senior villagers shared valuable knowledge about the benefits of neem and other herbal plants during the Chaitra month, highlighting the role of traditional medicine and herbal remedies in maintaining health.

A lecture on Women Empowerment was delivered by Dr. Ritu, who discussed the importance of education, gender equality, confidence, and leadership among women. She encouraged volunteers to support and promote women's empowerment in society.

Volunteers also participated in interactive and team-building games, which helped develop leadership qualities, communication skills, cooperation, and team spirit.

Day 4 – Awareness Activities, Skill Development and Donation Drive

The fourth day started with yoga, meditation, and heartfulness exercises, helping volunteers maintain discipline and positive energy throughout the camp.

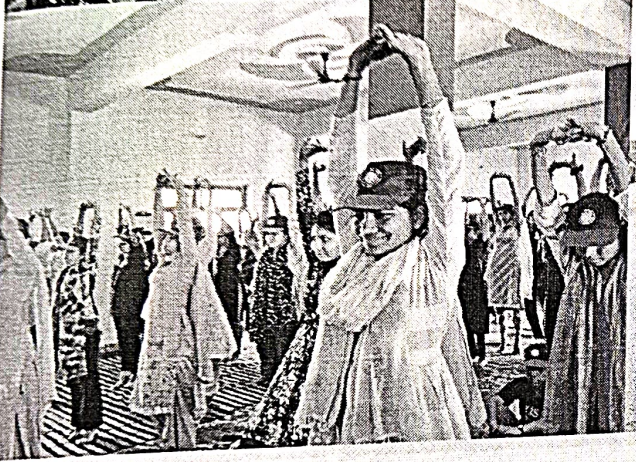

Various thinking games and memory-enhancing activities were organized to improve critical thinking, creativity, and concentration among volunteers.

Volunteers organized a rally to spread awareness about traffic rules and road safety in the village. Through slogans and interaction with villagers, they highlighted the importance of following traffic rules to prevent accidents.

A donation drive was also organized by the volunteers in a nearby slum area, where food and clothes were distributed among the underprivileged. This activity instilled a sense of compassion, empathy, and social responsibility among the volunteers while directly contributing to the welfare of the community.

Teams also prepared for their Nukkad Natak (street play) performances based on important social issues such as drug abuse, environmental protection, and social responsibility.

The day concluded with daily diary writing and evening sports activities, which strengthened team spirit and bonding among volunteers.

Day 5 – Awareness Programs and Creative Activities

The fifth day focused on social awareness and youth responsibility.

A thought-provoking play on the “Role of Moral Values in Youth” was presented by SI Amar Kataria, Nodal Officer, Traffic Police, Rohtak, highlighting the importance of ethical decision-making and responsible behaviour among young people.

Another performance focused on traffic rules and road safety awareness.

ASI Mohan, In-charge of the Anti-Drug Cell, Rohtak, delivered an awareness lecture on the harmful effects of drug abuse, while SPO Harish Chander emphasized the role of youth in promoting healthy and responsible lifestyles.

Principal Dr. Santosh Hooda visited the camp venue and appreciated the efforts of NSS volunteers. She encouraged students to actively participate in community service and social development activities.

In the afternoon session, volunteers participated in a declamation competition on “Role of NSS Volunteers in Social Change.” They also prepared eco-friendly paper bags as an alternative to plastic and rehearsed an anti-drug awareness street play.

Day 6 – Community Service and Cultural Learning

On the sixth day, volunteers actively engaged in community service and environmental awareness activities.

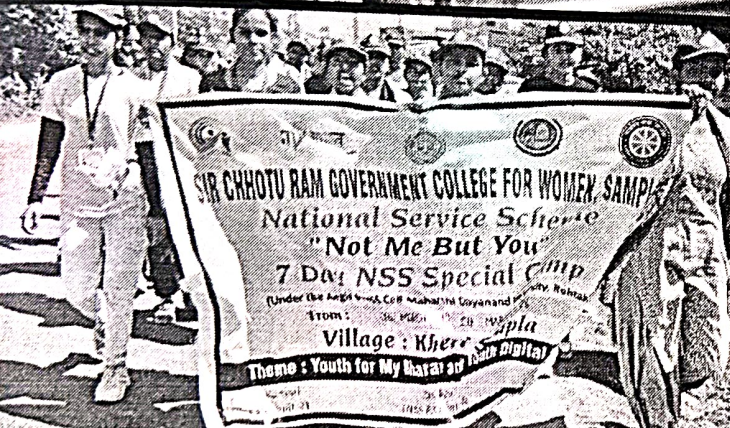

They created awareness about reducing plastic use and distributed handmade paper bags to shopkeepers and villagers.

A “Save Environment” rally was organized in the village to promote environmental conservation and sustainable living.

Volunteers also performed a Nukkad Natak on anti-drug awareness, effectively communicating the harmful effects of drug abuse.

Dr. Savita Hooda conducted a session on public speaking, helping volunteers develop confidence, communication skills, and leadership qualities.

The day concluded with a Sanjha Chulha session, where volunteers shared homemade food with each other, promoting the values of sharing, unity, and cooperation.

Day 7 – Valedictory Ceremony

The 7-day NSS Camp concluded successfully on 12 March 2026 at the college campus.

The Chief Guest of the valedictory ceremony was Dr. Savita Rathee, NSS Coordinator, MDU Rohtak. She appreciated the dedication, enthusiasm, and active participation of the NSS volunteers and encouraged them to continue contributing to society.

During the closing ceremony, Dr. Savita Rathee and Principal Dr. Santosh Hooda distributed certificates to the volunteers in recognition of their sincere efforts during the camp.

During the camp, various environmental awareness activities were conducted. As part of the plantation drive, a total of 150 saplings were planted in different areas of Kheri Sampla village, contributing to environmental conservation and promoting greenery in the village.

Activities such as plantation and a song competition were also organized during the closing ceremony.

Principal Dr. Santosh Hooda motivated the volunteers to continue serving society and remain committed to the ideals and values of the National Service Scheme (NSS).

The successful organization of the camp was made possible through the dedicated efforts of NSS Programme Officer Dr. Ritu (Unit-II).

Outcome of the Camp

The camp created awareness among villagers about environmental protection, drug abuse prevention, traffic safety, and digital literacy. It also helped volunteers develop leadership skills, teamwork, discipline, and a strong sense of social responsibility.

Conclusion

The 7-day NSS Special Camp proved to be a highly enriching and meaningful experience for the volunteers. It strengthened the bond between students and the rural community and inspired them to work towards the betterment of society and nation building.
